

COMPETITION GUIDE

This competition is open to children of all ability levels. If your child has any special educational needs, such as dyslexia or down syndrome, please include this information with your submission. We will factor age and special educational needs in the judging process. Children who find it easier to write their entry on a computer are free to do so.

WHAT:

Using the enclosed template, children should write a 200 word (max) diary entry from the viewpoint of Nat. We are looking for an engaging diary entry which leaves us wanting to read more. A planning form is included in this pack to support the writing process.

WHEN:

The closing date for the competition is June 10th 2018.

HOW:

Send the completed entries using the form below or email competitions@2simple.com, including your contact details and attaching the entries.

PRIZES:

A football shirt with the winner's name on the back, a £25 book token, and a hamper FULL of official football merchandise.

5 runners up will receive a £20 book token and a UEFA Champions League football.

WHO:

This competition is aimed at children aged 9 to 14 but Striker Boy fans of all ages are welcome to take part.

PLANNING MY DIARY

Use this template to help you plan your diary entry. Think about an event that he was part of and what he felt and experienced. For example: waking up in the taxi to the sight of a dilapidated cottage, or the day Stan Evans invites him for a trial...
